Holy Thursday or Maundy Thursday refers to the Thursday before Easter. It is the first of the last three days of Holy Week which are collectively termed the Sacred Triduum. Holy Thursday is followed by the final two days of the Triduum: Good Friday and Holy Saturday. For Roman Catholics, Holy Thursday commemorates the key interrelated events of the night before the crucifixion of Jesus, each of which is saturated in meaning.

Good Friday, the Friday before Easter, commemorates the Passion and Death of our Lord Jesus Christ on the Cross. No Mass is celebrated on Good Friday; instead, the Church celebrates a special liturgy in which the account of the Passion according to the Gospel of John is read, a series of intercessory prayers are offered, and the faithful venerate the Cross by coming forward and kissing it. The Good Friday liturgy concludes with the distribution of Holy Communion. Since there was no Mass, Hosts that were reserved from the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday are distributed instead.
